Your medical aid may not cover the entire costs. The fee for the delivery is to be paid within one month of delivery, if the account is paid in full before or at the time of the delivery a discount of R1000 is offered. Medical aid may not cover entire delivery cost.

Blood tests will be billed by the pathologists.

After the birth you will receive separate accounts from the hospital, paediatrician and anaesthetist.

Please feel free to discuss any financial matters with Dr Newham.

I have read and understand the costs involved.
